Itinerary

Day 1 – London / Cambridge / York / Durham

Welcome to London. Begin your journey north through the English countryside with your first stop in the historic university city of Cambridge, famous for its elegant colleges and timeless academic atmosphere. Continue onward to the beautiful walled city of York, where you can admire the magnificent cathedral, Roman walls, and lively shopping streets while enjoying some free time to explore. Later travel further north to the medieval city of Durham, renowned for its impressive cathedral and castle standing above the river.

Day 2 – Durham / Alnwick / Edinburgh

Today you will travel into Scotland, stopping first at the charming town of Alnwick. Known for its beautiful gardens and striking medieval castle, the town gained worldwide fame as one of the filming locations for the Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone series. Continue to Edinburgh, Scotland's elegant capital and a UNESCO World Heritage city. On arrival, enjoy a panoramic city tour with a local guide, taking in the historic center, charming streets, parks, and the iconic hilltop castle.

Day 3 – Edinburgh / Inverness / Loch Ness / Fort Augustus / Glasgow

Today's journey takes you through the breathtaking Scottish Highlands. Begin with a stop in the picturesque town of Pitlochry before continuing through Inverness and onward to the legendary Loch Ness. Visit the historic Urquhart Castle and enjoy a scenic boat ride on the mysterious waters of the loch. Continue via Fort Augustus, known for its canal locks, and Fort William at the foot of Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in the United Kingdom. Later travel south past the shores of Loch Lomond before arriving in vibrant Glasgow.

Day 4 – Glasgow / Belfast / Dublin

Depart Glasgow and travel south to Cairnryan, where you will board a ferry across the Irish Sea. Arrive in Belfast, the capital of Northern Ireland, a city rich in history and culture. After a brief stop, continue south into Ireland and arrive in the lively capital of Dublin by evening.

Day 5 – Dublin

This morning enjoy a panoramic tour of Dublin, a charming and welcoming city set along the banks of the River Liffey. Discover elegant parks, lively shopping streets, and important historic landmarks including the exterior of Trinity College Dublin. The remainder of the afternoon is free for you to explore the city at your own pace, relax in one of its famous cafés, or enjoy its vibrant atmosphere.

Day 6 – Dublin / Caernarfon / Liverpool

Early this morning, board a ferry from Dublin and sail across to Wales. Your first stop is Caernarfon, a charming seaside town and UNESCO World Heritage Site dominated by its magnificent medieval castle. After time for lunch and a stroll, continue onward to the famous port city of Liverpool. Enjoy a short panoramic tour of this historic maritime city, celebrated for its waterfront heritage and musical legacy.

Day 7 – Liverpool / Chester / Lichfield / Birmingham

After breakfast, travel to the historic city of Chester, known for its Roman amphitheater, medieval walls, and charming half-timbered streets. Enjoy free time to explore before continuing to the picturesque town of Lichfield. Here you can wander through cobbled streets and admire the impressive three-spired medieval cathedral. Later arrive in Birmingham, England's second-largest city, where the canals, lively restaurants, and modern cultural atmosphere offer a pleasant evening.

Day 8 – Birmingham / Stratford-upon-Avon / Stow-on-the-Wold / Gloucester / Bath

Today travel to Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of William Shakespeare. Continue through the idyllic countryside of the Cotswolds to the charming village of Stow-on-the-Wold, famous for its stone houses, galleries, and antique shops. Later arrive in Gloucester, where you will have time for lunch and a visit to the historic cathedral. The day ends in elegant Bath, renowned for its Roman heritage and beautiful Georgian architecture.

Day 9 – Bath / Stonehenge / Salisbury / London

Spend some time this morning in Bath before continuing through southern England to the world-famous prehistoric monument of Stonehenge, where admission is included. Afterwards travel to Salisbury, a charming medieval city where you can enjoy lunch and visit its magnificent cathedral, home to the tallest spire in England. Later return to London, where your memorable journey comes to an end.
